

Voce Bilingue

Mini-aula

Punctuation

1) Insert the right punctuation in the sentences below. They can be: comma, full stop, inverted commas, exclamation mark, question mark and colon.

1 Come here she said and tell me again

2 The sense of touch means I can feel if things are hot cold soft hard smooth or rough

3 Carbohydrates such as starch and sugar give us energy

4 Without warning the huge bird swooped down and grabbed him

5 Wherever she went that day the cat seemed to follow her

6 Do you know how to cook Emma

7 I have a list of chores to do today wash dry and iron my clothes

8 Stop You'll ruin the cake

9 After he ate the lion was full

10 I'm starving Let's eat mum

11 Above a seagull squawked loudly

12 To George James seemed bold

13 Are we going to paint Miss Jones

Answers on next page

Respostas na pagina seguinte

Voce Bilingue

Mini-aula

Punctuation

1) Insert the right punctuation in the sentences below. They can be: comma, full stop, inverted commas, exclamation mark, question mark and colon.

1 "Come here", she said, "and tell me again".

2 The sense of touch means I can feel if things are hot, cold, soft, hard, smooth or rough.

3 Carbohydrates, such as starch and sugar, give us energy.

4 Without warning, the huge bird swooped down and grabbed him.

5 Wherever she went that day, the cat seemed to follow her.

6 Do you know how to cook, Emma?

7 I have a list of chores to do today: wash, dry, and iron my clothes.

8 Stop! You'll ruin the cake!

9 After he ate, the lion was full.

10 I'm starving. Let's eat, mum.

11 Above, a seagull squawked loudly.

12 To George, James seemed bold.

13 Are we going to paint, Miss Jones?